

This Week In SCOV

January 4, 2024

Association News

Board Candidate Update: I received a flurry of valid petitions for the placement of a candidate for Director during the last week in December. It brings the slate to the following 9 candidates: Jim Cherry, Janice Fischer, Sherokee Ilse, Richard Mazza, Tod Milton, Deb Olson, Michael Pidone, Dan Reagin, and David Siegel. Respectfully, Bob Landis, Chair of Nominating Committee. Note: The cutoff has been passed for candidates by petition, the slate is now complete.

Capital Contribution Fee listening session: Join a roundtable discussion and have a conversation with a director to share your thoughts about increasing the capital contribution fee. This is a come-and-go format, stop in, share your thoughts, join in the conversation, and leave at any time. These discussions will be Monday, January 8, 11 am-noon, and Tuesday, January 9, 4-5 pm, Activity Center/Auditorium. The Capital Contribution Fee Fact Sheet can be found here.

Calendars for Board Meetings & Committee Meetings: There are now buttons on the calendar page for Board Meetings and Committee Meetings. You can find it on our webpage: SCOV >News & Information> Calendar. A workaround has been created to make this possible. We are very glad to provide this service to you once again. Click here to test out the new buttons.

Sun City is offering a free movie: 'What Happens Later', starring Meg Ryan and David Duchovny on Wednesday, January 10, 5 pm, Activity Center/Auditorium. This movie is rated R for language, sexual references, brief drug use, and is not recommended for children. Reserve your seat here, BYOB or get take-out at the Bistro.

Ultimate Chicago will be performing at Sun City on Wednesday, January 17, 6 pm, Auditorium. Ultimate Chicago has assembled some of the finest musicians to re-create all the excitement, energy and nostalgia that comes with a live performance of Chicago's iconic music. Tickets can be purchased here for $25 pp. The Bistro will be open with snacks and drinks for purchase or BYOB.

The Neighborhood Pride Committee (NPC) will start touring today, January 4. The teams will be looking for any stand-alone address numbers (which are prohibited) and the frame of the house address that needs painting or repair. If your address board is no longer working, there are replacements available that are solar-powered and have larger numerals. Please call the Covenants Coordinator at 520-917-8087 for more details. Teams will also be looking for areas of bare ground in the front yard or street-facing side yards. Please see sections 2.6.E & 2.18.C.10 of the Development Standards for more detail. As always, teams may report any violations that they observe while touring. Thank you for keeping your home looking great.

The Aquatics and Fitness Advisory Committee is sponsoring an Open House on January 8, 12:30- 2:30 pm, Aquatics Fitness Center (AFC). Come join us to learn about great fitness opportunities and you may win a raffle prize.

Open to all SCOV residents: The Government Affairs monthly meeting is on Wednesday, January 10, 1 pm, WC1. A zoom session can be accessed here.

Gift Shop News: It's a new year and the Gift Shop has many new items and new consignors. We have stained glass art, new rock art wine stoppers, and much more. If you need a new clock for the new year, be sure to check out our segmented wood clocks in a variety of sizes and acrylic-poured clocks in vibrant colors. Visit the shop to find these items and much more.

Walking the golf course: Before 8 am and after 5 pm. Golfers maintain the right of way. We kindly ask all carts and walkers to remain on cart paths and ensure that pets are cleaned up afterward. For your pet's safety and the comfort of others, please keep them leashed. Thank you for your cooperation.

Weekly market hours: With the cooler weather, more vendors are coming. Wednesdays behind the Welcome Center, 9 am-1 pm, rain or shine. Please stop by and support our local businesses.
