How will the Copper Center renovation improve the Sewing groups and the Clay Studio? Seven separate sewing clubs currently use the Sewing studio. With improved accessibility at the Copper Center, better storage, and dedicated work areas in the Copper Center, they will be able to offer more classes and welcome more new residents interested in exploring sewing as a hobby. The Clay Studio will shift to make additional room for the Wood Shop, and expand into the space vacated by the sewing clubs. These improvements will provide more new and existing Clay club members with dedicated personal storage for their tools and materials. To learn more, go to Trending> CopperForward> Communications> Videos for Clay and Thimblelenas.

The Pool Usage Task Force requests pool users help by: 1) recording each of your pool visits on the tally sheets located at the pools, 2) sending comments to the TF through the QR codes located on the community bulletin boards, or 3) communicating via the TF email address:

SCOVPoolUseTaskForce@gmail.com

Government Affairs will be hosting Coffee with a Cop Tuesday, November 3, 9-10 am, The Views Restaurant bar area. As always, Oro Valley Police will provide updates and listen to community concerns. The committee is interested in topics for future forums. We are currently looking at a fraud presentation, and potentially a water forum. Please send any topics for future talks to muriel@phaspirations.com.

Parking Reminder at the AFC A friendly reminder to please be mindful when parking at the AFC. Please make sure your vehicle is fully within the painted parking space and do not park over or into the designated golf cart parking areas. The parking spaces can be tight, and parking outside the designated lines can make it difficult for neighboring vehicles to enter or exit their spaces. Please take a moment to look at the lines and make sure your vehicle is properly centered in your space. A little extra care goes a long way in making parking easier and safer for everyone.

Wednesday Farmers Market Cancellation We're sad to announce the cancellation of our Wednesday Farmers Market due to declining participation. With only two vendors remaining and limited consistency, the market is no longer viable. We sincerely thank our dedicated vendors and residents for their support and appreciate your understanding as we make this difficult decision.

So, you'd like to make a donation to 40 and Fabulous' on-line silent auction, but you have no idea what to donate? Consider donating a "personal service" such as preparing a gourmet dinner for 2,4,6, etc. Or perhaps, baking a cake/dozen cookies a month for a lucky winner. See more ideas on our website: www.scov40andfab.com.

Gift Shop News: New in the Shop! Discover our stylish men's (or women's) beautifully made choker necklaces made with natural stones in a variety of colors and styles. These versatile necklaces can be worn by anyone and make a unique and thoughtful gift for a friend, loved one, or even yourself. Stop by the Gift Shop and find your favorite natural stone necklace today! Reminder: Arts and Crafts Festival Saturday, November 14, 9 am – 2 pm. We hope to see you soon.
